The Silver Linings Playbook: Moving Forward with Purpose

- 1) Assess the division of household labor in your home. What's working? What areas need improvement?
- 2) In what ways has your org/team changed its culture or opened up post Shelter-In-Place (SIP)?

What aspects of those changes would you like to hold on to when things return to some version of "normal?"
- 3) How has SIP changed organizational norms/attitudes around telework?
- 4) What would help make telework more available and open in your org when SIP is over?
- 5) How can your organization and managers better support the challenges facing caregivers in your workforce?
- 6) What systemic, structural, policy, and/or other institutional changes would meet the long-term childcare crises facing many working parents?
